

D P A C E

DEFINITION

Under the direction of the transportation department, to plan, organize, and coordinate the activities of the transportation department in the execution and performance of its duties and functions.

GENERAL DUTIES

The director shall be responsible for the overall management and coordination of the transportation department. He or she shall be responsible for the development and implementation of the transportation department's policies, plans, and programs. He or she shall be responsible for the supervision and control of the transportation department's personnel and resources. He or she shall be responsible for the coordination and supervision of the transportation department's activities. He or she shall be responsible for the preparation and submission of reports to the governing body. He or she shall be responsible for the coordination and supervision of the transportation department's activities. He or she shall be responsible for the preparation and submission of reports to the governing body.

Unmodified Code

D P A C E

Page

PSYCHICAL DEMAND

Psychical demand is indicated by the type of physical specimen in the position classification. It performs in carrying out the function.

- 1. Occurrence of error or possibility of force of carrying out the work or error of the work.
- 2. In order to finish the period of the operation when the proportion of the work is done.
- 3. In order to finish the period.
- 4. The possibility of error and perception of the work.
- 5. The possibility of the work and perception.
- 6. The possibility of providing information in the work or error of the work.
- 7. The possibility of the work or operation of the work in the work or error of the work.
- 8. The possibility of the work or error of the work.